

RURAL AMBASSADOR STUDENT GRANT

Guidelines 2022 - 2023

Grant Purpose

Rural Workforce Agency Victoria (RWAV) is a non-profit government funded organisation improving healthcare for rural, regional and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities in Victoria.

The RWAV Rural Ambassador Student Grant aims to enhance opportunities for students interested in rural health to participate in, or lead, events and activities that promote rural health.

The grant aims to raise awareness of the opportunities available in rural healthcare to young people. This is a crucial step in attracting and retaining a future rural health workforce.

Applicants can apply for funding to:

- Attend rural health events such as conferences, speaking events, rural career events, community activities or cultural awareness/safety training.
- Organise or host their own rural health initiatives.

RWAV may also use the funding to support rural health ambassadors to act as RWAV representatives at events promoting rural health careers such as conferences, mentoring dinners, community activities and youth activities.

*Applying for this grant does not guarantee that funds will be awarded.

Funding

Applicants can apply for funding for up to $2,000 once per year. At the discretion of RWAV, funding items can include:

- Travel costs
- Resource development
- Event tickets
- Registration fees
- Venue hire
- Equipment hire/purchase
- Talent fee
- Accommodation and meals

*Applicants are encouraged to apply for funding to cover all funding items from the above list that will be applicable to their event/activity. Please note that this does not guarantee that all funding requests made on the application will be filled.

The expenses and the amount awarded to each applicant will be at the discretion of the RWAV Future Workforce Program Officer and details indicating where the funding can be spent will be specified in the agreement letter.

Grant funding cannot be used for the following activities:

- Recruitment and relocation grants to health professionals to cover expenses that are covered by their employers
