

ABORIGINAL CULTURAL SAFETY TRAINING WORKSHOP

This training has been developed to support the cultural safety of Aboriginal people. It is offered at no cost to frontline staff and health professionals delivering outreach services to Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander clients.

DETAILS

Date: 16 April 2020

Location: Quest Portland,
66 Julia Street, Portland VIC 3305

Time: 9:00am - 2:30pm

Morning tea & lunch provided. Space is limited, please register by contacting Outreach on (03) 93497800 or vicoutreach@rwav.com.au.

WORKSHOP TOPICS

- What is cultural safety and how to implement practical strategies into practice
- Complexities of Aboriginal identity and asking the Standard Indigenous Question (SIQ)
- How colonisation and past policies have shaped contemporary Aboriginal culture, health and perspectives
- Barriers that affect Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander clients in accessing health and community services
- Cultural protocols and respectful engagement

LEARNING OUTCOMES

A greater understanding of:

- Aboriginal Australian history in the context of colonisation and post colonisation
- The impact of past policies and the intergenerational effects
- Grief, loss and trauma and its effects on Aboriginal people and communities
- Some aspects of Aboriginal culture & identity
- Practical strategies to create cultural safety