ABOUT

Event Organisers

Rural Workforce Agency Victoria (RWAV) is a non-profit, government funded organisation specialising in recruitment, support and retention of the healthcare workforce throughout rural Victoria. We recruit GPs, nurses and allied health professionals as well as arrange GP locum relief. RWAV provide outreach services to rural communities to gain access to specialists and health professionals. RWAV provides health professionals access to government grants for continuing professional development. We also support doctors in their progression towards fellowship and support them to gain advanced and extended skills. In addition, RWAV provide medical practices with business support, training as well as networking opportunities. RWAV increases opportunities for medical, nursing, allied health and high school students to gain an in depth knowledge of the benefits and opportunities of working in rural Victoria and raise the profile of rural practice.

Rural Doctors' Association Victoria (RDAV) is a not-for-profit organisation working to maintain and improve the health of rural residents, through association and representation of those doctors in Victorian rural towns and communities, with the specific purpose of fostering a workforce adequate to this task through lobbying for and on occasion providing, proper education, recruitment, retention and family support.

The Conference

RWAV and RDAV will be convening the annual Victorian Rural Health Conference. This is a unique opportunity for your organisation to connect with over 250 health professionals from across Victoria. We are committed to engaging with delegates and facilitate Continuing Professional Development (CPD), discussion panels, live entertainment and a wide range of activities for families of delegates.

The Delegates

Delegates include general practitioners, GP registrars, practice managers, practice nurses, government representatives and medical students from across Victoria.

Sponsorship

The packages are designed to give organisations a strong presence at the conference. Sponsors will receive ongoing recognition and exposure through the Rural Workforce Agency Victoria and Rural Doctors' Association of Victoria's communication channels, before during and after the conference. Ongoing sponsorship will enable organisations to develop progressive relationships with delegates and health professionals in Victoria.

The Venue

Nestled in Creswick, the heart of Victoria's beautiful Spa Country between Daylesford and Ballarat, RACV Goldfields Resort is a 90 minute drive from Melbourne CBD and is surrounded by 150 acres of stunning natural beauty, comprised of rolling hills, a championship golf course, native gardens and the Creswick State Forest.

We look forward to your participation
